Praise the Lord for He is worthy to be praised!

Well, gone is the month of July already! God kept us alive to see another August and that's a blessing within itself amen? There are those who haven't made it as far as we have so we have much to thank God for even if we didn't get our way in various situations. Sometimes we don't get our own way because that thing that you think may be right for you may be the worst thing that could have ever happened to you if you received it when and where you wanted it. God knows our needs.

I've recently written a new book called, "Elixir of Life/Spiritual Inspirations" which has a few sections in it that confront the subject of fear. It is only $3.99 on iTunes.Com and is in an iBook form, I hope that you read and enjoy it. God has been taking me in new paths and on new journeys. I haven't asked what's going on at all, I just learned to listen and follow Him. It's a process. It is so awesome to see the things that He does for us if we allow Him to do so. I pray that you too are on a wonderful and exciting journey with the Lord. Open you heart and go "where the wind listeth" as the Word says:

The wind bloweth where it listeth, and thou hearest the sound thereof, but canst not tell whence it cometh, and whither it goeth: so is every one that is born of the Spirit. (John 3:8)

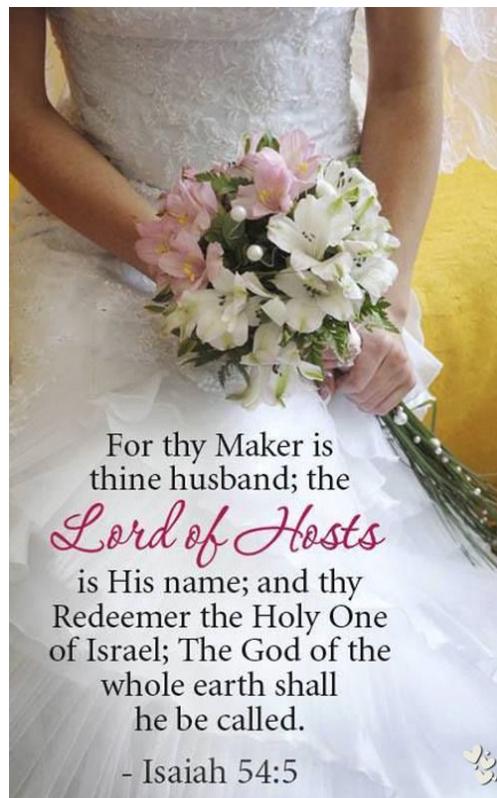

I've been getting a lot of prayer requests lately that I would like to share with you, however I do not like being a name-dropper because God knows their names. Could you please keep them in prayer? One lady just left my apartment in tears because her daughter has cancer of the bladder and lung. The daughter has two boys ages 7 & 13. It broke my heart and I bound that Cancer in in Jesus mighty name. I hate cancer and what it does to people.

If you know of anyone who wants to be placed on a special prayer list please let me know & I will place them on our Prayer Group at <http://www.groups.yahoo.com/group/newbirthministries>

We have to be strong and stand in the gap for those who are experiencing spiritual warfare and may be overwhelmed.

I recently saw something on television that disturbed me greatly and I'd like to share it with you. We have to be careful of what our eyes see and what our ears hear. If you are not strong enough you may just believe the lies of the devil. I wish to share my writing with you on the next page. Feel free to contact me if you have any questions.

On cursing.....

We are getting so far from the truth. There was a study done that they discussed on The Chew that says that cursing a little bit everyday is actually good for you. And the people all laughed and clapped. How?...Where??? Who came up with that idea? Who got paid for that study?

In the Bible Peter cursed when the woman pointed him out for being a follower of Jesus. He was afraid for his life and mad. Not good. Jesus 'cursed' the fig tree that appeared to have fruit on it and didn't, it dried up and died....not a good thing. How is cursing your loved ones, friends and family a "good thing?" Nothing cursed is good. Don't listen to this new/neo mess. If you are afraid or mad....how about praying?
Don't curse your friends, family, household, job, neighbors, etc.

Curse Cancer at the root. Curse Diabetes, heart attacks, skin disease, tuberculosis, Aids, Mersa, Lukemia, lesions, tumors, cystic fibrosis, scoliosis, palsies, Fibromyalgia, be mad at that. Curse that mess at the root like Jesus did so that so many people won't have to suffer in this world. Curse hunger, lack, want.

Sorry for the little rant. I am just flabbergasted at how silly we get down here on Earth. Too much time on our hands. If you'd like to add anything or any disease/symptoms that I forgot, feel free. (Prejudice, hatred, meanness.)

Let's do this. God bless. ~ Essie

.....and that was the article. Cursing is not a good thing in any way, shape or form. That is why I cursed conditions and not people. Cursing is putting an end to something or someone. It is disrespect in the deepest form. Some people even have what I call, "The spirit of cursing." They are the ones who "cuss like a banshee" or as the saying goes, the "cuss like a sailor" and can't seem to stop.

Have you ever had someone cuss around you seemingly on purpose? That is the "spirit of cursing." They won't stop for anyone or anything and some of them make a point of letting you know that they won't stop just because you are around. It's simply disrespect.....for and towards you. Don't worry though, pray for them and under your breath, bind that spirit in Jesus name and let him know who is Boss. Amen. And also, do not allow this spirit to intimidate you in any way. Some people have open doors spiritually and they are under every influence except God's. Jesus said that we should exercise patience. It's a virtue, a fruit of God's Holy Spirit. Use it daily.

Ending prayer:

Father God, I thank you for all that you have done for me and how you kept me in times of despair, danger and sorrow. Your eyes are on the sparrow and I know that you watch over me and mine.

Bless each and every reader of this Revelation Lord in Jesus name and may they give their hearts to Your Son Jesus. Amen.

Have a great week and remember to smile, the fresh air is good for your teeth!
