The waters

Principalities

The Speed of Angels

Psychics, Mediums and Spirit Guides.

I pray that this writing brings you much peace, love and joy in the Holy Ghost.

I would like to bring a thought to your mind about water. How many times did God part the waters? Answer: 4.

- 1. Moses : Exodus 14
- 2. Joshua : Joshua 3:16-17
- 3. Noah : After the flood
- 4. For you! : Genesis 1:7

Notice that the next time that you hear of any major water event besides Jesus' baptism is when Jesus walked on the waters. In the New Testament He is showing us that we no longer need to ask the water to move but to walk on top of it instead, moving mountains as we go. That's Faith. Genesis 1:1 says, that God's Spirit "moved upon" the face of the waters. Who moves in you? Hopefully God. God started it and finished it all. "It is finished." Thank you Jesus. And just think, satan thought that he knew everything....NOT! Now that's power in Christ Jesus. Amen! God's ways are so vastly different than ours. Bruce Lee once said, "never teach your student everything that you know", and that's all well and good but Jesus says that we will do either "better" or "more" than He did in the 3 years of His ministry on Earth. The bible tells us that we cannot possibly place everything that He did here on Earth in one book. You wouldn't be able to pick it up.

I remember when I first found out that the Red Sea was not only parted for Moses in Exodus 14 but for Joshua as well in Joshua 3:16-17. God was serious about saving His people and He still is today. Pardon the metaphor but Jesus is our Red Sea so-to-speak. He is our cleansing way of escape. He is the Word and the Word is also called 'Water'. He parts the Water and allows us a way of escape when we get into tight situations. When He opens the Path for you no man can shut it. And when He shuts it, no man can open it. Our problem today is that we worry about what man says. What goes on between you and God is between you and God. I am sure that there were some who didn't think that John the Baptist was in his right mind either, living in the woods eating wierd food. Look what his anointing brought to him, he ended up being the one to help God the Father ordain the Son for ministry. Right after Jesus came up from out of the waters, God then said, "This is my Son in Whom I Am well pleased." God hadn't talked to the people in years before this happened. Some scholars said that it had been over 200 years from the time that the people last heard from God Himself. Can you imagine what the paparazzi was whispering in the bushes when they saw that dove land on Jesus when all the while they were hearing God's announcement? If they had cameras, cell phones and internet back then it would have gone viral. The news would go something like this, "God announces the man, Jesus of Nazareth, as His Son and says that He is pleased with Him. Story at 11." Another news station says, "So, it's true folks, that crazy guy in the wilderness eating locust and honey evidently WAS important to God! We will cover the outcome tonight at 11. Stay tuned." It made people so mad and confused that even the kings daughter asked for John's head on a silver platter as a gift. God debunked the nay-sayers for John the Baptist just as He does today for you. You would be surprised to find out everything that God did for you that you didn't know about. All that you have to do is to keep your personal prayer line open. Talk to God all day in some kind of way...audibly, mentally, physically. Do you know that Ezekiel 1:14 tells us that angels travel at the speed of lightning? Get this my friend: Lightning travels at 186,000 miles per second. The Earth is 25,000 miles around. Every time that you pray or say the name of Jesus, angels travel 7.44 times per second. That's 7 1/2 times per second depending on how long it takes you to say "Jesus". 15 times if it takes you 2 seconds to get His name out.

Read Daniel 10:12. The Angel Gabriel heard Daniel's prayer as soon as it came out of his mouth. God hears your prayers as well. Evil spirits try to fight your angel off from bringing you the answer. Pray for your angels, there is nothing wrong with praying for God to strengthen them while helping you. Don't pray to them but it's okay to pray for them. See Daniel 10:13, “The Prince of the Kingdom of Persia” is mentioned and also “The Prince of the power of the air.” in Ephesians 2:2. Every territory, city, state, country has ‘assigned spirits’ over them. Satan is serious in this battle of souls. He wants souls to burn for eternity with him. Misery loves company. That’s the message wrapped up into one sentence. He knows his destiny and is jealous over yours. If he can trip you up he will by any means necessary. Have you ever gone to another city or country and just felt something different over that certain place? That’s is your discernment rising up.

I heard a preacher tell this story recently. Some people from a communistic country came to America but a few years later, they actually wanted to go back home. The preacher asked why and they explained that America has too many troubles. We have religious troubles, racism, homosexuality, drugs, and alcoholism, etc. They said that all they had to worry about back at home was Communism! Tells you something doesn’t it? (Their words not mine so don’t sue me.) Our insistence of “all-inclusion” is bringing on some pretty strong “heavy-hitters”, demons if you will, principalities. Other cultures can see the chaos, why can’t we? Are we that immune to it? I think so. I heard a Chinese lady and an East Indian man say that they only came here to work and make money. They said that they stay to themselves when not at their businesses so that they can stay out of trouble. I’ve heard many foreigners say that throughout the years. Here’s the question: Why can’t we see it? Why does it take a foreigner to tell us that we are living in chaos?

We still cannot discern good from evil and that is a shame. Diviners, mediums and spirit guides exist. But they are not of God. They are not who they say that they are, yet, Christians everywhere depend on them. “Joseph was a diviner” people say, always bringing up his Silver Diviners Cup that is mentioned in Genesis 44:1-15. God had ways of speaking to His prophets as He does today. If I told you how He speaks to me sometime, it would shock you. I always have to keep my ears and eyes open for His leading and His guiding. It is totally awesome how God speaks to me. He doesn’t want us to take credit for anything that He does. For an example: God will show me that someone is going to call me or something is going to happen soon. If I tell it, it will not happen. If I keep my mouth shut, that person will call or what God said will happen will happen. I cannot use this power for my own glory but for God's Glory. God's ways vary, Joseph's cup, Samuel's prayer fires. God would blow the candle and or fires out for yes or just blow it around for a no (or vice versa.) Then there are the stones, the Urim and the Thummin. If the white stone heated up it meant yes and the black one meant no. You can find that in Exodus 28:30, Le 8:8, Nu 27:21, De 33:8, 1 Sam 28:6, Ezra 2:63, Ne 7:65. All of this was before the Birth of Jesus and the Administration of the Holy Spirit that started in Acts 1:7. We are now able to discern through Him, not stones, necklaces or fire or candles. Now I am not saying that God cannot or will not use those mediums because with God all things are possible, but it is not happening on a large scale today. As far as mediums seeing dead people, etc. that is Necromancy and God's Word speaks against that. Ecclesiastes 9:5 says, "The dead know nothing." Once their breath is taken away from them they are no longer considered as living at all. Genesis says that Adam was a soul BUT after God breathed into him, he became a "Living Soul." (Genesis 2:7) Our loved ones who are gone on before us are "dead souls" waiting for the judgment.

The following article that you will see is not my own but is a very interesting read. I would not give you anything to harm you. It really sums up how I feel about spirit readings, psychics, and spirit guides. God bless you and thank you for reading. ~ Rev. Essie

2 Corinthians 11:12-15

- 12 But what I do, that I will do, that I may cut off occasion from them which desire occasion; that wherein they glory, they may be found even as we.
- 13 For such are false apostles, deceitful workers, transforming themselves into the apostles of Christ.
- 14 And no marvel; for Satan himself is transformed into an angel of light.
- 15 Therefore it is no great thing if his ministers also be transformed as the ministers of righteousness; whose end shall be according to their works.

Spirit Guides Angels. A great friend of mine Kristine McGuire, who is a well known author and speaker is probably my number one go to person regarding “Paranormal.” The following post is here entire article just released and I could not say it any better then she has. Beware of False Prophets, and know many will leave the fold. BTW, Is Turkey the Gog and Magog?

Spirit Guides, Ghosts, and Angels

There are three shows which I enjoy watching on TLC. I guess you could call these programs my “guilty pleasures”. These are the shows I watch in marathon mode when Thom is away from home or early in the morning when I’m the first one up. These three shows are Nineteen Kids and Counting, The Little Couple, and Say Yes to the Dress.

Here’s the thing. As a result of tuning in to TLC for these three programs, I’m often bombarded by commercials for some of the other popular programs that TLC produces and which I have no desire to watch. The best example of this is Long Island Medium.

This morning, however, I discovered there is a new show to add to the roster of “Not to Watch” list on TLC—Angels Among Us.

Now, I did watch the first episode and visited the TLC show site to be certain this wasn't something like a series where people's stories of "angelic encounters" were told. Nope. This program centers around a medium who channels messages from spirit beings. The medium, Rosie Cepero, considers all of the spirit beings with whom she communicates as "guardian angels" of those she reads (and this includes the dead).

Let's be perfectly clear.

The spirit beings this medium is in communication with are not angelic and certainly are not the spirits of the departed loved ones and friends of the people whom she performs a reading. These entities are familiar/demonic spirits who masquerade as "angels of light" in order to deceive people. The purpose is to draw us away from an understanding of God, heaven, life after death, salvation, etc., as is revealed to us through scripture.

Friends, do not be deceived or drawn into the deception of mediums who claim they communicate with "guardian angels" or tell you that your deceased loved one is watching over you as an angel. This is just not true nor does the Bible support this worldly belief. The Bible tells us that angels are created spirit beings who serve God. We are not to seek them out for communication but God does send them when it serves His plan or purpose. The Bible tells us that angels:

- Serve, worship, and praise God. (Isaiah 6:1-3; Revelation 4-5)
- Communicate God's will to His people. (Acts 7:52-53)
- Guide people according to God's will. (Matthew 1-2, Acts 8:26, Acts 10:1-8)
- Protect God's people. (Daniel 3 & 6)
- Deliver God's provision. (1 Kings 19:6)
- Rescue God's people from danger. (Acts 5 & 12).
- Are dispatched as part of God's response to our prayers. (Daniel 9:20-24, 10:10-12, Acts 12:1-17)
- Care for believer's at the moment of death. (Luke 16:22)
- Angels are never to be worshiped. (Colossians 2:18).

People such as the woman in the TLC program are mediums. They are communicating with spirit beings. This is an action which is prohibited by God in the Bible in the strongest terms possible. Scripture clearly states "When men tell you to consult mediums and spiritists, who whisper and mutter, should not a people inquire of their God? Why consult the dead on behalf of the living?" Isaiah 8:19 (NIV).

This is why I urge you to turn away from programs which highlight spiritism, spiritualism, ghost hunting, and communication with spirits. God calls the practice of spirit communication an abomination. This means He hates this activity and warns us to not seek out mediums, psychics, necromancers, or other spiritist/spiritualists.

Please, do not open this spiritual door to your life by watching a medium communicate with a familiar spirit, even as "entertainment".

As Christians, we do need to take seriously what scripture says about the occult influences which permeate our culture.

We need to be able to discern truth from the lie, test the spirits as is recommended in 1 John 4:1 (because not all spirits or spiritual experiences/messages are from God), and shine the light of the Gospel of Jesus Christ into a dark world.
